The UPM undertakes to compete in the National Elections and to promote the following principles and objectives.

1. To re-implement Christianity, as the cornerstone of the community, in schools, in order to educate our children in a religious environment.
2. To encourage Namibia to recognize the international right to self-determination.
3. To fully express the interests and rights of oppressed people, nationally and internationally, and to fully utilize and use the constitutional platforms to reach this objective.
4. To sincerely endeavour to support and respect the rights of all oppressed and exploited minority groups.
5. To demand the fair share of tax and gross national returns for each region in order to contribute towards essential development.
